

Have you got concerns about your local air quality?

Is so, come to a public meeting held by the Parkland Airshed Management Zone (PAMZ) on Wednesday, May 17 from 6:00-8:30pm at the Snell Auditorium, Red Deer Public Library, 4819-49 Street in Red Deer.

The purpose of the meeting is to hear suggestions and concerns from you, the residents in central Alberta about your air quality, which will help PAMZ select air monitoring locations for our portable monitoring station in 2018.

Everyone welcome!

Snacks and refreshments will be provided. No pre-registration is required and attendance is free. For further information, contact: Kevin Warren, PAMZ Executive Director (403) 862-7046.
